

LYKIS LIMITED

Code for Independent Directors

Introduction

Implementation of best corporate governance practices by the Independent Directors on the Boards of Directors of the Company enhances the company management efficiency, improves its image and contributes to the overall growth of the Company's shareholder value. Independence, objectivity and an irreproachable business reputation are the distinguishing characteristics of an Independent Director.

The roles and duties of the Independent Directors have been extended by the Companies Act, 2013 into areas such as, among others, ensuring appropriate disclosures of related party transactions, recommending independent auditors, vigil mechanism and carrying out board evaluation. They are also required to balance the interests of various stakeholders, including non-shareholder constituents.

Consistent with these principles, the Board of Lykis Limited has adopted this Code of Conduct for Independent Directors as a guide to the high ethical and legal standards expected of them. Each Independent Director must comply with the letter and spirit of this Code.

No code or policy can anticipate every situation that may arise. Accordingly, this Code is intended to serve as a source of guiding principles for Independent Directors.
